Joe

Hospitality

Connie Delaney is doing hospitality for this months meeting.

Program for June

There is NO program scheduled for June.

Delegate's Report

June 7, 2015

By Laws
Committee

There is a proposal to the Board allowing Delegate Judges charge a nominal fee. The Board will vote on it their next meeting.

Rules versus regulations: basic recommendation – leave it as is. Delegates don't vote on regulations. Rules are harder to change.

Board oversight in hiring – refer to the Board for recommendations. The question is, should they oversee hiring and how low down the ladder.

An amendment recommending removal of term limits was sent to Board for approval.

Rules Committee

Reserve Best Jr. – will be addressed making it mandatory
Pee Wee – will have guidelines soon.

A parade of FSS and Misc was discussed since it is important Judges be exposed to these breeds.

June 8, 2015
General Meeting

Michael Liosis was honored for 45 years of service.

Financial – Revenue is up, expenses decreased, balance sheet shows 7 M up from last year. The proposed changes to territory was sent back to committee.

Respectfully Submitted

Around The Ring

Ch. Kismet's Jared

"Jared" was purchased from his breeders, Guy and Thelma Mauldin, Kismet Kennels, in November 2014 and went directly to his handler, Mendy Gleason. Jared is by BISS Ch. Kismet's Shogun and Ch. Kismet's Silver Minx.

Jared started out with a bang with Mendy. On January 24, at the Shetland Sheepdog Club of Houston, he was Best in Sweepstakes and won a major Reserve Winners Dog under Breeder-Judge Lloyd Graser, Jr. Then at the Shetland Sheepdog Club of Austin, on March 1, he was Winners Dog for a four-point major and Best Puppy under Elizabeth McCarthy.

In the following months, he picked up four two-point wins along with two major Reserves. On June 4, he was Winners Dog for a four-point major at Lake Charles under Gary Newton. He finished his Championship just three days shy of his First Birthday. Happy Birthday, Jared!

Jared is now home at Donlyn Shelties enjoying his new family and friends
